

New !! New!! New!!

Faculty Flex Afternoon Workshop Series Fall 2010

Fall 2010 Faculty Flex Afternoon Series

This series of workshops are designed for instructors who want to learn more about the college and discover new teaching strategies. Flex credit is available for all sessions. (Flex credit is available for associate faculty up to amount designated on their instructional contract.) Professional Development has allocated funds for stipends for associate faculty. Depending on the number of associate faculty who attend 3 of the 5 sessions, stipend of up to $100, may be awarded.

Faculty Kick-Off Social – Flex # 703
David Danielson's House (Directions on back)
Friday, August 27, 4:00pm – 6:00pm

All Instructors are welcome to join us for conversation and refreshments. New associate faculty are especially encouraged to attend, to get to know their colleagues in a more casual setting.

All Workshops will be held in the Center for Excellence, Main Campus
3:00pm – 5:00pm

- Emotions to Eruptions: Students in Our Classroom, Maureen Hernandez, LMFT
 - Thursday, September 16th, 3:00-5:00pm – Flex # 704
- The Happiness Project, Kelly Munson & Students
 - Wednesday, October 13th, Flex #705
- Diversity, Julie Withers
 - Monday, November 8th, Flex #706
- Effective Teaching Strategies for Student Success, Carrie Roberson
 - Tuesday, November 30th, Flex #707
- 5th Option: Attend one Academic Senate Meeting to receive credit for one of your three required workshops to receive the stipend. Please make sure you sign in to receive credit for attending. Academic Senate meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays from 3:00-4:45pm in LB 105.

 Remember, associate faculty need to attend 3 of the 5 workshop options in order to be eligible to receive a stipend.

Watch for additional information! Get involved!

Questions? Please contact Professional Development @ 895-2543